The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Ty Masterson at 10:30 a.m.

1. Chairperson Masterson opened the discussion on consideration of the Governor's application for extension of the state of disaster emergency as presented at the May 26, 2021, meeting of the Legislative Coordinating Council. After discussion, Senator Rick Wilborn moved, pursuant to K.S.A. 48-924, that the current state of disaster emergency be extended through June 15, 2021. Chairperson Masterson seconded the motion. Representative Dan Hawkins made a substitute motion that, pursuant to K.S.A. 48-924, the current state of disaster emergency be extended through June 15, 2021, and that Executive Order 21-13, related to certain foreclosures and evictions, be revoked effective immediately. Chairperson Masterson seconded the motion. On a roll call vote of 6-2, the motion carried.

Upon completion of all business before the LCC, the meeting was adjourned.
